

Adventures In Acting Newsletter

Thursday, July 1, 2010

www.adventuresinacting.com

- Hooray! There is camp tomorrow, from 9-2 like normal. It will be our final run through, complete with an audience of preschoolers! Then we will all return in the evening for our opening show! Yay!
- Saturday there is no camp, but we do have two performances. There will be a break in between the shows for you to go home and have dinner.
- Call time for the performances is one hour before the show (6:30 for the evening shows and 1:00 for the matinee). Come well-fed, rested, and ready to go! Our amazing volunteers should arrive at this time too.
- Make sure all your clothing pieces for the show stay here. Please respect your costumes, keeping them neat and organized in your dressing room and remember to keep them clean.
- After Saturday night's performance we will all clean the dressing rooms, return costumes, and then have a cast party in the lobby. Families are invited to stay for the party – there will be cake and awards!
- The box office will be open half an hour before each show starts, so if you haven't picked up your tickets at Gracewinds yet you can get them there.
- Strike is on Sunday at 10:00 am. We need help cleaning, taking down the set, and repainting the stage! Please come help! Lunch will be provided and with more people we will have tons of fun! ☺ If you have power tools like electric drills, or cleaning things that could be helpful, please bring them in too. Thanks!

By the Way...

We noticed several of our campers are crafty creators so we're trying something new ~ there will be limited space available for staff/campers who would like to sell crafts during intermission. Items need to be kid-produced and pre-priced. There will be a volunteer to monitor the sales. Interesting, very, very interesting! ☺

